

CTIIC Director Tonya Ugoretz joined the Federal News Radio broadcast on 20 October to discuss the impact the new organization is having on the sharing of cyber security data across the government how the Center will move from initial operating capability to full operations over the coming year.